Narodna galerija

*The National Gallery of Slovenia, with its hundred years of tradition, is the main Slovenian cultural institution for classical art and a treasure chest of Slovenian fine arts. Woman Drinking Coffee, Summer, Before the Hunt, The Larch, and The Sower are some of the favourite works of art from the Permanent Collection, which showcases more than 600 works from the Middle Ages to the end of the 20th century.*

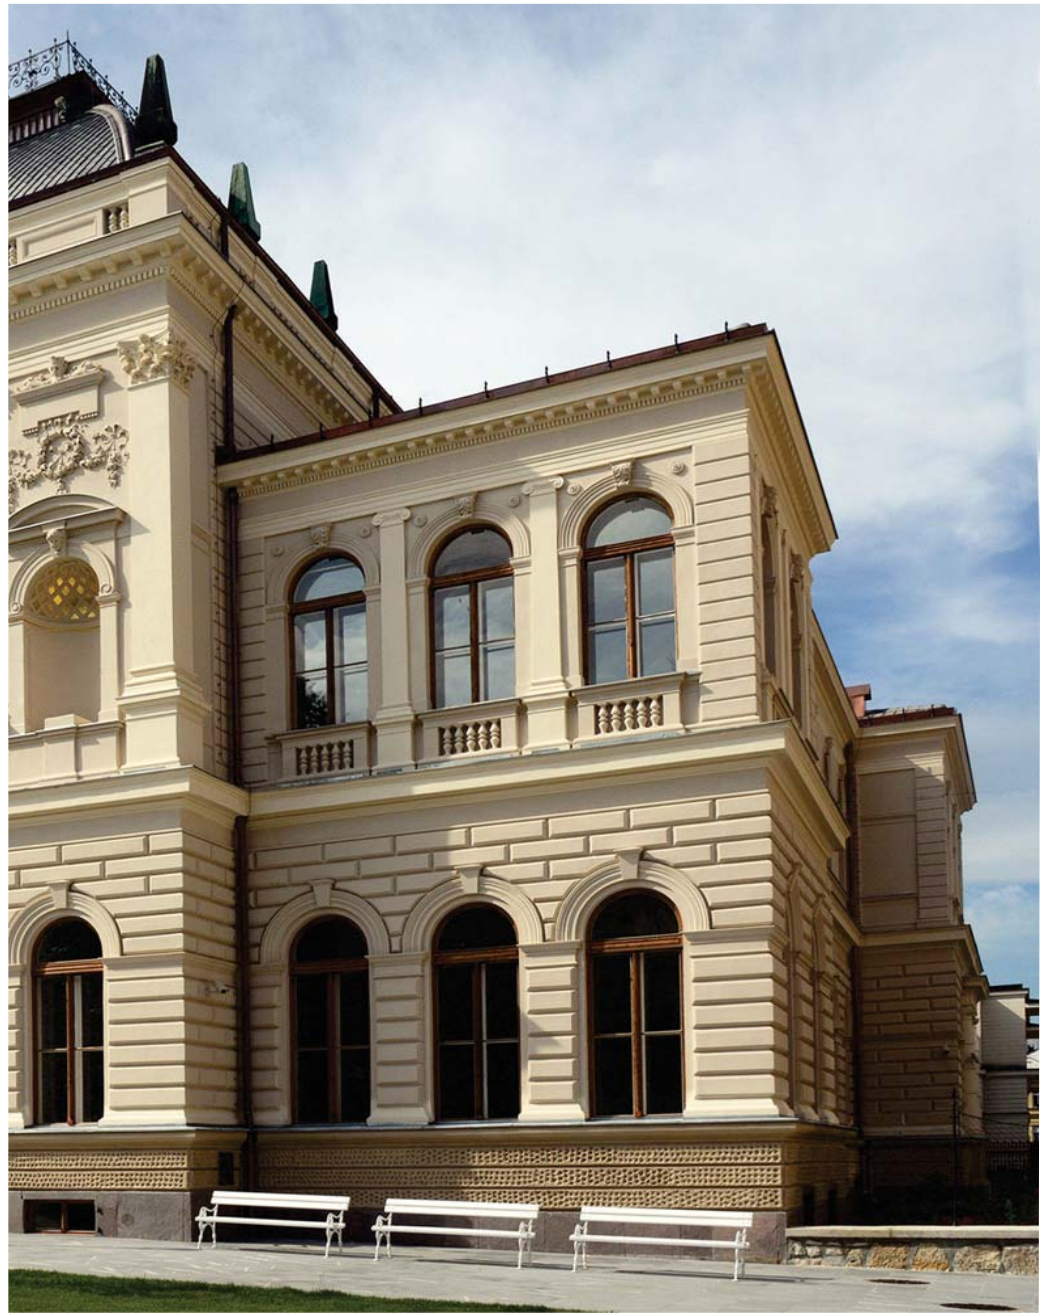

The new Permanent Collection was inaugurated in January 2016, when the renovated Gallery premises were opened. The three-year renovation finally integrated the three wings of the gallery complex – the glass Entrance Hall, the New Wing, and the Narodni dom Palace, the oldest part of the Gallery.

Since 1896, the Narodni dom Palace has been a monument to Slovenian culture in Ljubljana. It was called the lighthouse of Slovenian spirit and hosted numerous cultural and societal events. We wish to carry on with tradition, since the representative halls offer a perfect backdrop for various occasions. Throughout its history, the Gallery has welcomed presidents, honoured academicians and authors, hosted musical performances, banquets and formal events.

The Grand Hall, the Golden Hall, and the Entrance Hall are synonymous with the most elegant halls in Slovenia, while the outstanding works of art remain silent witnesses of social events and their stories. They are ready to witness your story, too.

Welcome!

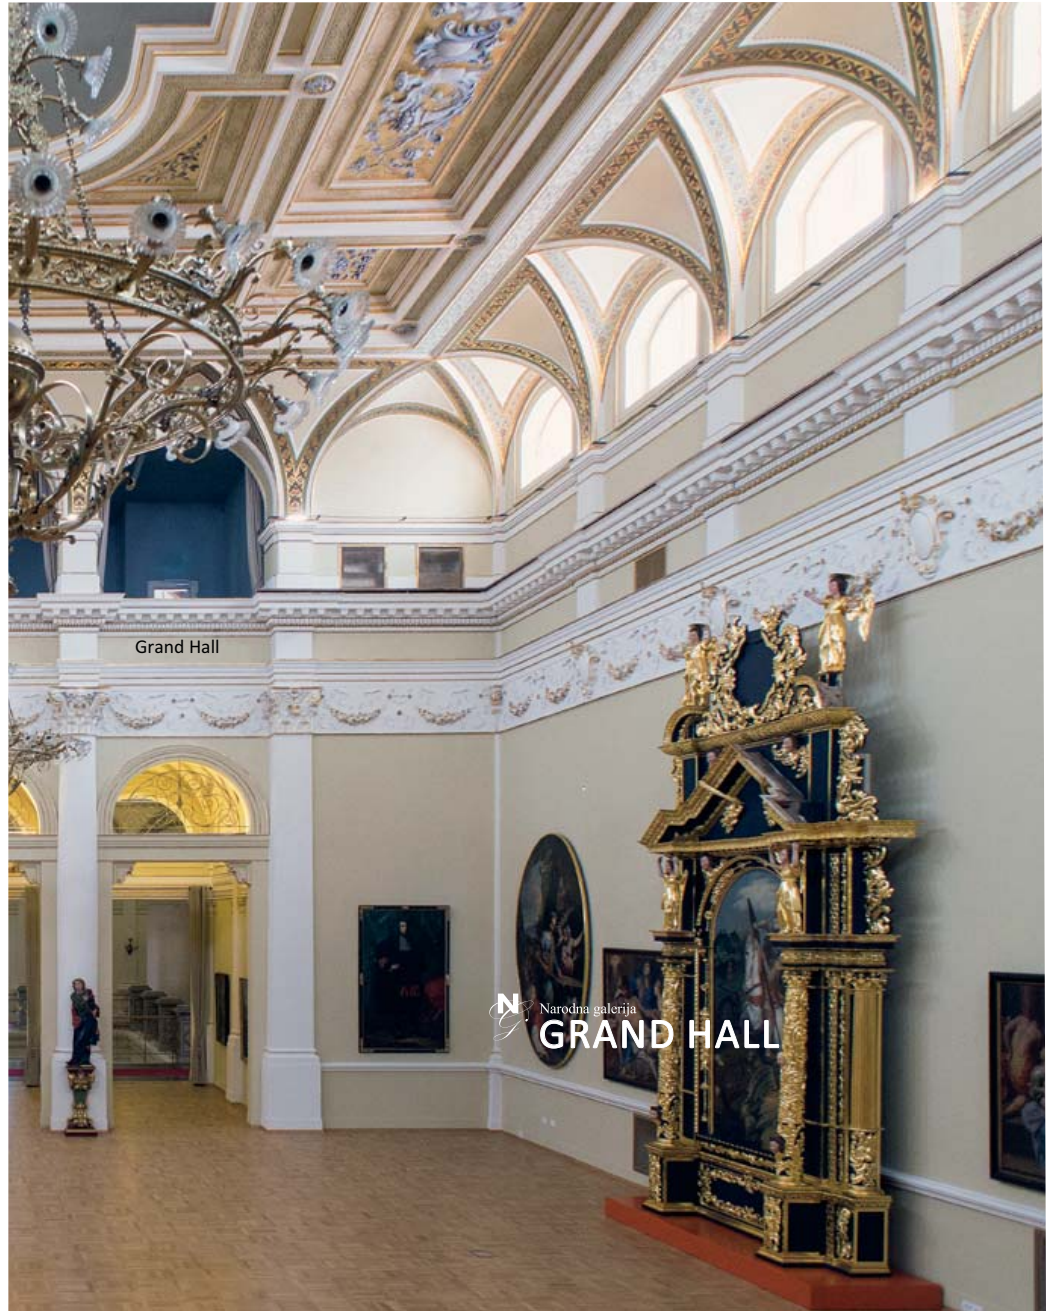

The spacious glass hall, Ljubljana's living room at the crossroads of the lively city centre and Tivoli Park, is ready for your perfect event. Entrance Hall is an outstanding place for all kinds of occasions – banquets, gala dinners, professional conferences, lectures, and music performances. The original Robba Fountain complements the uniqueness of the hall.

The newly revealed decoration, ceiling stucco, and outstanding works of art – after the recent renovation, the Grand Hall is shining once again. You can take in the view from its balcony, too. This representative space is suitable for lectures, award ceremonies, classical concerts and other topmost events. The Grand Hall is also accessible through the Festive Entrance from Cankarjeva Street.

Seats 180

The Grand Staircase leads to the resplendent Golden Hall in the oldest and completely renovated wing of the Gallery. Glittering gilding and alcoves with mirrors create a sumptuous atmosphere. The Golden Hall is also accessible through the Festive Entrance from Cankarjeva Street.

Narodna galerija (National Gallery of Slovenia) is the main art museum in Slovenia housing the largest visual arts collection from the late medieval period to including the twentieth century.

As a public cultural and research institution, the Gallery studies, collects, protects, exhibits, and interprets the works of art, the history of artistic expression, patronage, and art reception throughout the Slovenian cultural territory.

Due to the Gallery's outstanding mission, the exhibition spaces featuring works of art are closed for events involving food and drink.
